CAMPUS NEWS

LA SALLE UNIVERSITY'S WEEKLY INFORMATION CIRCULAR

September 28, 1990

TO: Campus Community

FROM: Ray Ricci, Vice President for Enrollment Services

In case you haven't heard yet, I thought you might like to know that La Salle was included in Money magazine's Guide to America's Best College Buys. This marks the third time this year that we have been recognized nationally for the outstanding value of our education.

In addition to Money (where we ranked 49th in the country among private schools -- right above Harvard), La Salle was included in the New York Times' Best Buys in College Education and Barron's 300 Best Buys in College Education.

At a time when the cost of college is increasingly important to prospective students and their parents, it's exciting to see La Salle developing a national reputation as a "best buy."

Mail and Duplicating emo

TO THE UNIVERSITY COMMUNITY:

RE: DUPLICATING TIP -

Dry ink is the single most expensive supply used in the photocopy process. Quite often copies of book pages are submitted as originals for duplicating. If the book size is less than 8.5 x 11", the copy has a thick black edge. This concentration of dry ink is equal to usage for 10 to 20 sheets of normal text copied.

ILLUSTRATION -

The copier lens scans the entire surface equal to 8.5 x 11". Any area of the glass which is not covered will draw toner. (see illustration)

Originals submitted in this condition cannot be duplicated further without alteration by duplicating operators.

By placing plain paper around the sides of the book while making the original copies, this waste of dry ink and operator time can be eliminated and your handouts will look much better!

THANKS!
